

Inside Our Hearts

By Deb Garman

Today our hearts are heavy,
And we can't help but cry
But even with the tears,
We need to say goodbye
It's hard for us right now
To see beyond our sorrow,
But it will be our memories,
That will comfort us tomorrow
We'll remember Mom's sense of humor
And times we made her proud
We'll remember how she loved us,
Without saying it out loud
When we had to say goodbye,
Tears flowed down our cheeks
A part of us went with her,
When God called her home this week
But God saw that she was tired
And He knows what is best
Breathing was just too hard,
And it was time to rest
So though she's left this earth,
We're only physically apart
We'll always have her close,
She lives on inside our hearts.
